— AGRANA Quick Facts

I Sugar.

I Starch.

I Fruit.

- The leading sugar manufacturer in Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe
- Major manufacturer of custom starch products in Europe and largest producer of bioethanol in Austria and Hungary
- World market leader in the production of fruit preparations
- One of the largest manufacturers of fruit juice concentrates in Europe (including the new joint venture with Ybbstaler)
- About 8,000 employees worldwide
- 53 production sites in 26 countries around the world (+ three new Juice plants)

At a Glance –

— AGRANA-Products in daily life

I Sugar.

- Sugar is sold
 - to consumers via the food trade (20%) and
 - to manufacturers: e.g. soft drinks industry, confectionery industry, fermentation industry, other food and beverage industries (80%).

I Starch.

- AGRANA produces starch and special starch products
- Starch is a complex carbohydrate which is insoluble in water. Starch is used in food processing e.g. as thickener and for technical purposes e.g. in the paper manufacturing process.
- Bioethanol is part of our starch business.

I Fruit.

- Fruit juice concentrates customers are fruit juice and beverage bottlers and fillers.
- Fruit preparations are special customized products for
 - the dairy industry,
 - the baked products industry,
 - the ice-cream industry.

— Sound and Solid Growth

AGRANA combines solid economic growth with sustainable natural and environmental responsibility.

— Key Drivers 2011|12

SUGAR Segment

- FY 2011|12 defined by sharp price movements and high absolute world market prices
- Import dependence on the world market, created by the EU sugar regime, led to sharp rise in prices
- Beet prices were also raised
- European Commission measures for SMY 2011|12:
 - Non-quota sugar for the EU food market
 - Permanent invitation to bid for sugar imports at reduced tariffs
 - Two tranches totalling 1.35 million tonnes of NQ-sugar approved for export

STARCH
Segment

FRUIT
Segment

— SUGAR Segment Highlights 2011|12

Revenue grew by 24.0% to € 884.4m

- Revenue growth in quota as well as in non-quota sugar, resulting both from higher sales volumes and higher selling prices
- Significant rise in world market prices in the first four months of the year led to higher sugar prices in all sales segments, particularly in Eastern Europe
- High sales of quota sugar were achieved both with retailers and the sugar-using industry
- Despite difficult environment, AGRANA was able to meet all existing commitments to customers for volumes and prices

Operating profit increased to € 112.3m

- Notable contributing factors: availability of non-quota sugar and timely sugar sourcing in the world market
- Vigorous marketing and the flexibility to seize opportunities created by changing market conditions
- Beet campaign 2011|12 was also very successful, with high beet quality and quantities
- Refining and reselling activities also yielded significantly higher margins than before

STARCH —

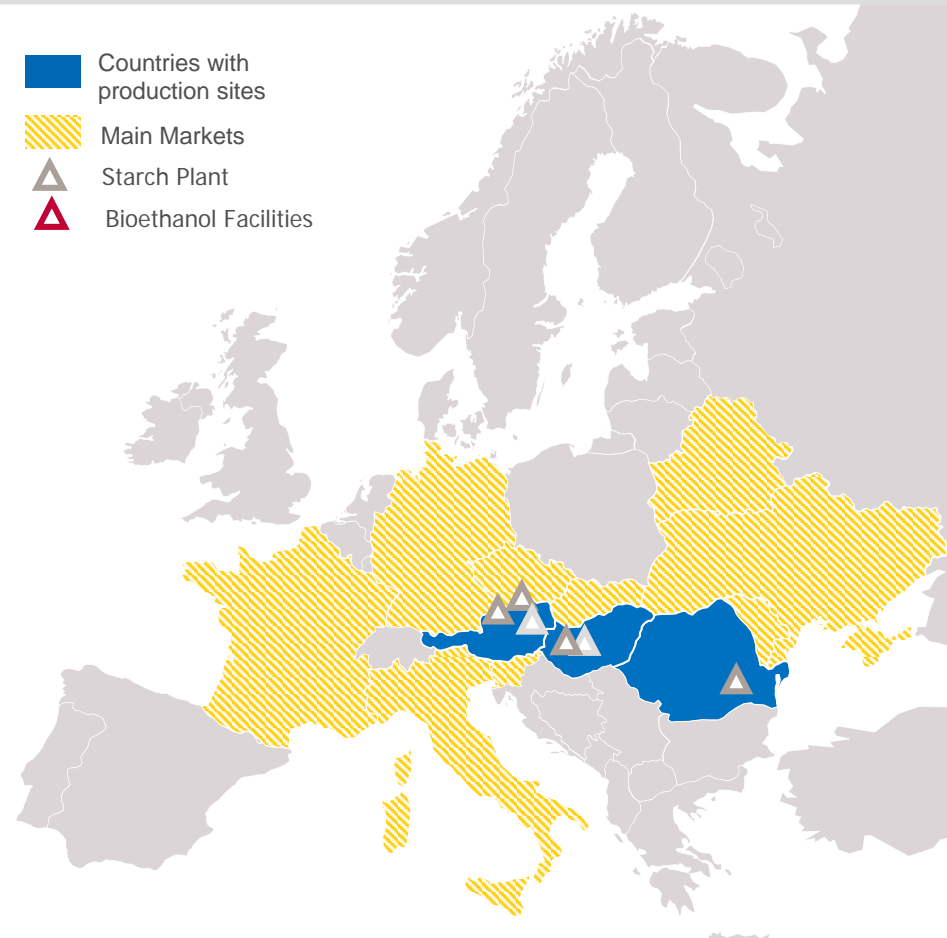

— STARCH Segment - Market Position

The Starch segment comprises AGRANA Stärke GmbH, with the Austrian starch products of the potato starch factory in Gmünd and corn starch plant in Aschach, as well as the operational management and coordination of the international holdings in Hungary and Romania. The bioethanol business also forms part of the Starch segment.

In the Starch segment, AGRANA focuses on highly refined specialty products. Innovative, customer-driven products supported by application advice and continuous product development, combined with relentless cost optimisation, are the key to the segment's success. Examples are the leading position in organic and in GMO-free starches for the food industry.

4 Starch plants & 2 Bioethanol facilities

— STARCH Segment – Specialisation Strategy

Food:

- Growth in products from special raw materials (Market leadership)
- Growth in starch derivatives for fruit preparations
- Growth in „High Care“-starches

Non-Food:

- Innovation- and Market leadership in
 - Special applications for construction industry
 - Adhesive (sack adhesive)
- Growth in cosmetics industry
- Growth in special applications for paper, textile and cardboard industry

— Key Drivers 2011|12

SUGAR
Segment

STARCH
Segment

- Volatile market environment, especially for starches for technical purposes)
- Increased volatility also in the food sector; impact of sugar market development on the starch food sector (isoglucose correlation, by-products...)
- Raw material prices developed sideways, but still at a high level
- In 2011|12, for only the second time in 20 years, AGRANA was able to use full quota for potato starch
- All corn starch plants ran at full capacity

FRUIT
Segment

— STARCH Segment Highlights 2011|12

Revenue up to € 764.3m

- Mostly from higher sales prices in all major groups of core and by-products (intensive marketing)
- Volumes also slightly above prior year especially due to increased sales of by-products
- In bioethanol, both sales prices and volumes exceeded level of previous year
- Stronger sales of starch saccharification products as consequence of price rise in the sugar market

Operating profit increased to € 81.9m

- Higher sales prices for all core products outweighed the effect of the risen raw material prices
- Along with efficiency gains, the key reason for the profit growth
- Profit growth was especially driven by the better performance of the Austrian subsidiary
- Expansion of trading activities

FRUIT —

— FRUIT Segment – Market Position

Fruit preparations

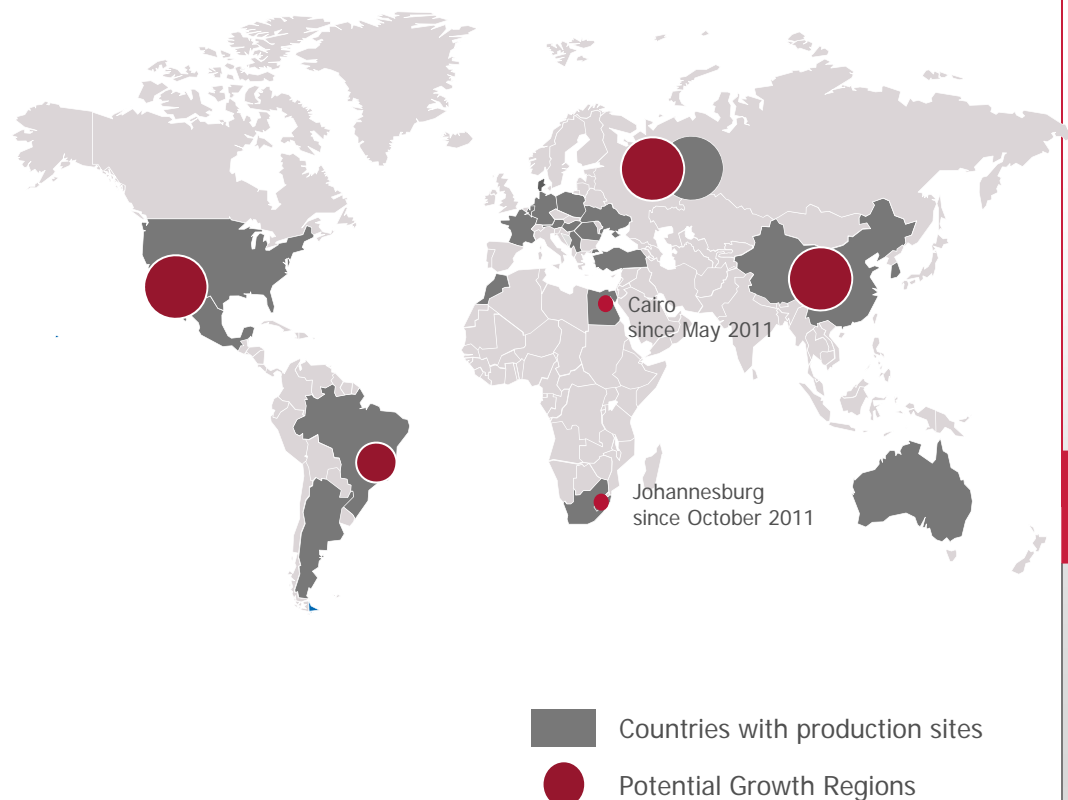

World Market Leader in Fruit preparations global market share > 30%

Long-term growth potential is intact, although the global fruit yoghurt
market was flat in 2011|12

Fruit juice concentrates

- One of the largest producers of fruit juice concentrates in Europe (new JV with Ybbstaler)
- Additional customer portfolio and new markets
- Optimisation measures taken in previous years show their positive effects

Status as of 29 February 2012:
27 Fruit Preparation Plants &
11 Fruit Juice Concentrate Plants

FRUIT segment - Business model

Fruit preparations

- Based on mostly frozen fruits
- Tailor-made customer products (several thousand recipes worldwide)
- Customers: dairy, bakery and ice cream industry
- Shelf life of the fruit preparation ~ 6 weeks -> necessity to produce regional

Fruit juice concentrates

- Based on fresh fruits
- Production in the growing area of the fruits (water content and quality of the fruits don't allow far transports)
- Customers: bottling industry
- Shelf life of fruit juice concentrates ~ 2 years -> can be shipped around the world

— Key Drivers 2011|12

SUGAR
Segment

STARCH
Segment

FRUIT
Segment

- Fruit preparations: in contrast to earlier years, stagnation of the worldwide market for fruit yoghurts
 - Strong price rise for dairy products resulting from higher milk prices; lower consumer confidence due to the macroeconomic environment
 - Manufacturers of fruit yogurts responded to the higher production costs with extensive cost-saving measures
- Fruit juice concentrates: positive market development – pricewise
 - successfully continued on the path taken in the prior years of broadening the customer base and opening up new sales regions

— FRUIT Segment Highlights 2011|12

Revenue rose to € 928.9m

- Decline of sales volume in fruit preparation activities related to a challenging market setting
 - New competitor in Russia; market share losses in Western Europe and North America; good performance in Central Europe and South America
- Sales prices for juice concentrates remained stable at a high absolute level, while sales quantities declined somewhat due to raw material availability

Operating profit decreased to € 38.2m

- Result in fruit juice concentrates was very positive (increased trading, “long position” in coverage)
- Volume reductions and (owing to raw material prices) lower margins in fruit preparations led to decrease in segment operating profit
 - Particularly in Western and Central Europe, results did not match year-earlier levels

CAPEX Evolution

2011|12:

SUGAR: new sugar silo in Tulln, 3rd fermenter for biogas plant in Kaposvár

STARCH: biomass boiler and expansion of corn processing capacity in Szabadegyháza

FRUIT: investments primarily to expand processing capacity in Russia, China and South Africa

Sugar.
Starch.
Fruit.

PROJECTS & SOUND OUTLOOK

— Current Projects & News

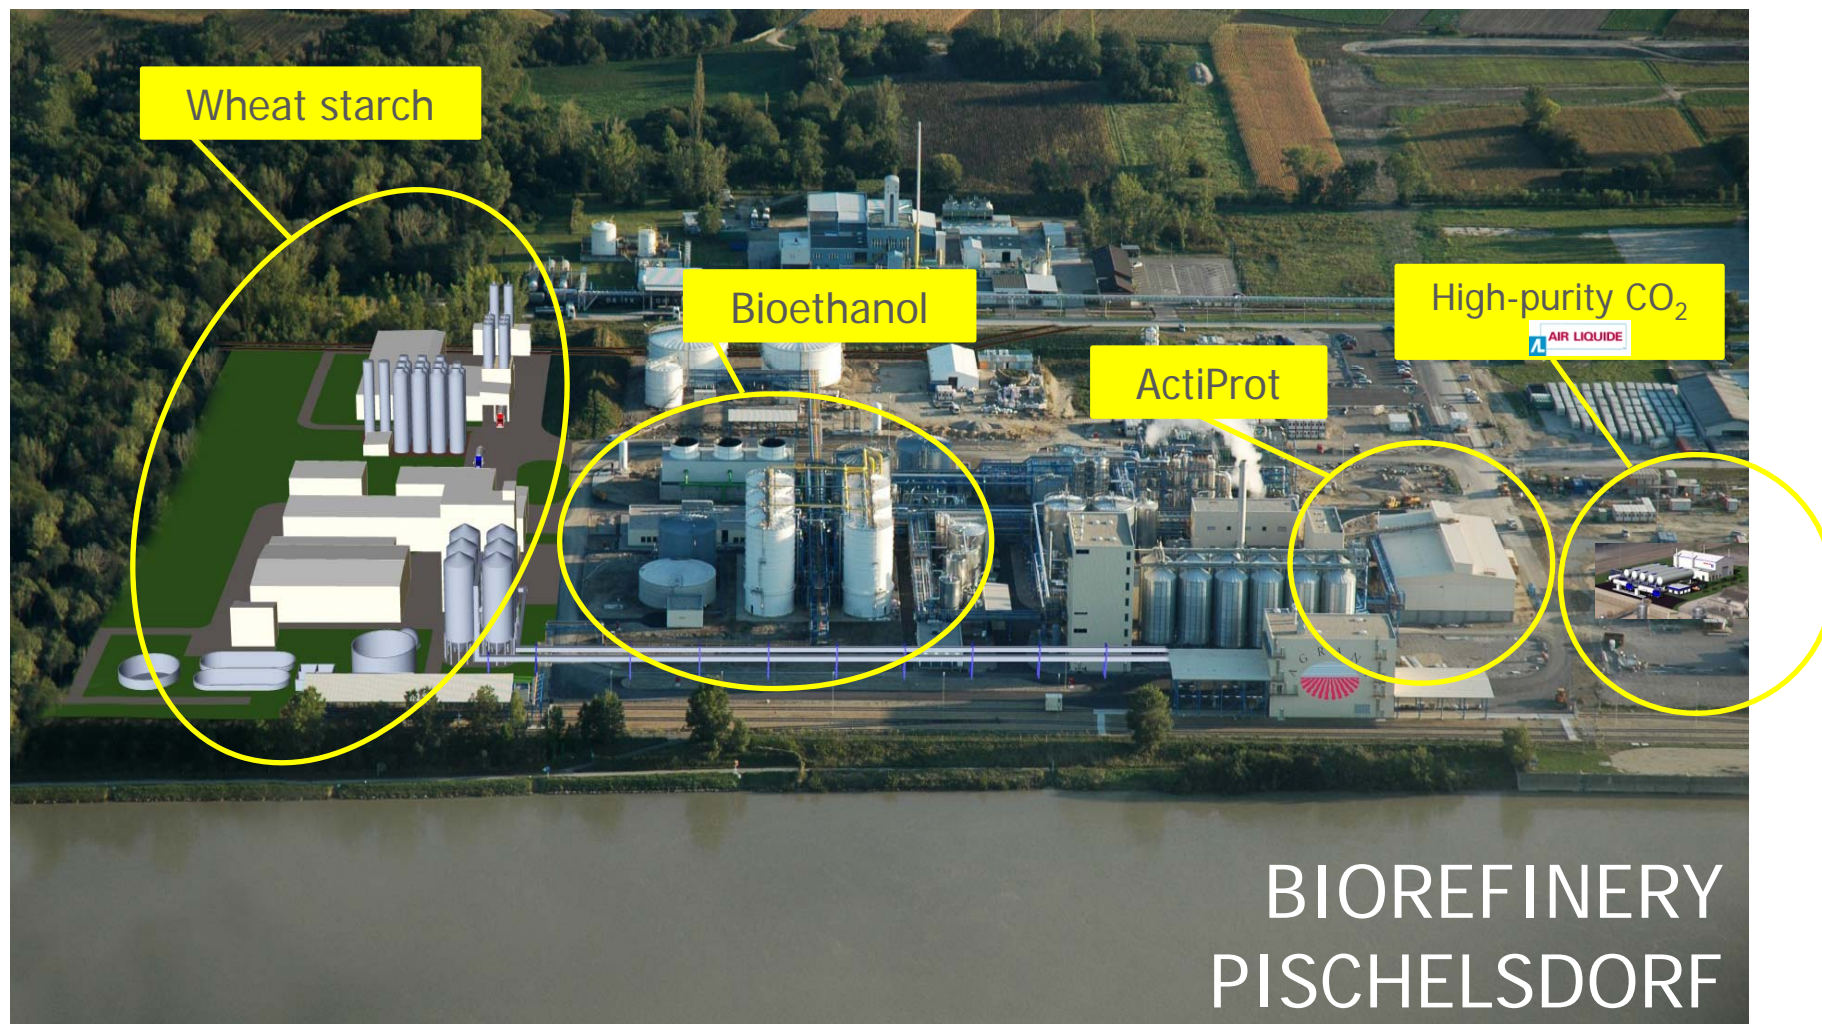

- Production capacity throughout the Starch segment fully utilised, therefore construction of a wheat starch plant in Pischelsdorf, Austria
 - Send its by-products to the bioethanol plant on the same site
 - With this new biorefinery, raw material utilisation is expected to closely approach 100%
- Raise of energy self-sufficiency through investment in beet pulp dryers in the Sugar segment and straw-fired biomass boiler at HUNGRANA in Hungary
- New joint venture, YBBSTALER AGRANA JUICE GmbH, will increase number of production sites by three
 - Full year revenue of about € 350 million; fully consolidated by the Group from Q2 2012|13 onwards
- For the first time, successful placement of a bonded loan for over €110 million on the capital market in April 2012; maturity: 5, 7 and 10 years
 - Funds from the bonded loan will be used for general corporate financing purposes and to further diversify the funding structure

— Europe's biggest Organic Producer

Naturalness and sustainability are important issues for the future growth of all AGRANA businesses

- AGRANA Sugar:
 - Austrian beets from organic agriculture
- AGRANA Starch:
 - Organic food (including baby nutrition) from Austrian potatoes and corn; but also feed and fertiliser for organic farming
- AGRANA Fruit:
 - Fruit preparation out of raw materials from organic agriculture; very often combined with regional procurement concepts
 - Fruit juices and fruit juice concentrates from organic farming

Our new Wheat Starch Plant

Facts & Figures

- Building area: approx. 4 hectares
- Investment: approx. € 65 m
(Total investment at Pischelsdorf: > € 200 m)
- Raw material processed: approx. 250,000 tonnes wheat per year
- Production of:
 - 107,000 tonnes of wheat starch
 - 23,500 tonnes of wheat gluten
 - 55,000 tonnes of wheat bran
 - 70,000 tonnes of “raw material substitute” („B+C-starch”) for bioethanol
- Increase in staff, from 80 to 130 employees
- 100%, no-waste use of raw materials

— Segment Outlook 2012|13

SUGAR Segment

- Maximising capacity utilisation and strengthening the market presence in Southeastern Europe
- Average expansion of about 10% in beet acreage planned
- A stable sugar price trend in 2012 is expected
- Slight decrease in earnings as a result of the situation in raw material prices expected
- But persistent high absolute level of earnings

STARCH Segment

- Revenue is forecast to ease somewhat in 2012|13
- Expansion of sales volumes, selling prices are expected to be lower than last year
- Operating profit before exceptional items expected to stay below last year's exceptional result
- Lower earnings primarily due to raw material and energy costs stabilising at a higher level than before, while ease of achievable selling prices

FRUIT Segment

- Challenging market environment for fruit preparations in 2012|13, similar to 2011|12
- Various activities (growth-driving projects, new developments) should enable revenue to be increased further in constant market conditions
- A recovery in operating profit is expected, thanks to volume growth and cost reduction measures
- In the fruit juice concentrate activities, further revenue growth expected driven by small increases in sales volumes coupled with continuing quite high selling prices

— Outlook AGRANA Group 2012|13

- AGRANA currently expects Group revenue to increase moderately in 2012|13 on overall slight volume growth and a high level of prices
- It is expected to achieve a Group operating profit in 2012|13 slightly below last year's exceptionally good result
- However, it is AGRANA's goal to establish the earnings position at its present general level in a sustainable manner through continual refinement of purchasing and cost management as well as focused improvements in energy consumption
- Planned investment: ~ € 140m
(depreciation level: ~ € 80m)
